

DOMINIC LEUNG

Editor

Dominic Leung's work on "Son of Rambow" is a highlight to a long career as an editor. This delightful feature stars two children and their huge imaginations which allow them to make a home video based upon the Rambo movie, First Blood. Dominic's astute choices for the film create a cohesive and beautiful tale which was so well received by the premiere audience at the 2007 Sundance Film Festival that it was immediately sold to Paramount Vantage.

Dominic began his career as one of the founding members of the highly influential Hammer & Tongs in London with Nick Goldsmith and Garth Jennings. Together they were responsible for some of the most innovative and entertaining music videos of the nineties – for artists such as Pulp, Supergrass, Fatboy Slim, REM, and Blur. He has edited over 150 music videos and commercials since 1994 including almost all of Hammer & Tongs projects and his own directorial work. Dominic also works regularly with Nick Gordon, Nick Knight, Sophie Muller, Thomas Napper, Johan Renk, Laurence Hamburger, Daniel Levi, Ben & Joe Dempsey, Pleix, Scott Lyons and W.I.Z.
